

High-Risk Risk Factors for Breastfeeding Women

For information on providing nutrition education for high-risk clients, see PPM NED 02.03.00 – Nutrition Education Contact – Second, High Risk.

Risk Factor
101b Underweight
341 Nutrient Deficiency or Disease
343 Diabetes Mellitus
346 Renal Disease
347 Cancer
349 Genetic and Congenital Disorders
351 Inborn Errors of Metabolism
352a Infectious Diseases-Acute
352b Infectious Diseases-Chronic
354 Celiac Disease
357 Drug Nutrient Interactions
358 Eating Disorders
372b Alcohol and/or Substance Use
602 Potential Breastfeeding Complications