

High-Risk Risk Factors for Infants

For information on providing nutrition education for high-risk clients, see PPM NED 02.03.00 – Nutrition Education Contact – Second, High Risk.

Risk Factor
103a Underweight (Weight/Length)
103b At Risk of Underweight, Weight/Length
115 High Weight for Length
134 Failure to Thrive
135 Slowed/Faltering Growth Pattern
141a Low Birth Weight
141b Very Low Birth Weight
201e Low Hemoglobin/Hematocrit
211 Elevated Blood Lead Levels
341 Nutrient Deficiency or Disease
343 Diabetes Mellitus
346 Renal Disease
347 Cancer
349 Genetic and Congenital Disorders
351 Inborn Errors of Metabolism
352a Infectious Diseases-Acute
352b Infectious Diseases-Chronic
354 Celiac Disease
357 Drug Nutrient Interactions
359 Recent Major Surgery, Trauma, Burns
362 Disabilities Interfering w/ Ability to Eat
383 Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome
603 Potential Breastfeeding Complications